ICC regional chapter forming

By J.B. Smith, S&B Commercial Buildings Program Manager

An application has been filed with the International Code Council to form a regional chapter of the ICC, to be called the Upper Great Plains Region, including North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin. I expect the application to be approved.

The decision to move to create the chapter came at a meeting in July of representatives from Wisconsin (including myself), North Dakota, and Minnesota. The representatives from South Dakota and Iowa were unable to attend. Also in attendance for this historic event were immediate past president of ICC, Anne R. vonWeller, and current ICC board member Greg Johnson. Other Wisconsin building code officials attending were John Crook, immediate past president of the Wisconsin Building Inspectors Association, and James Price, Jr., president of the North West Wisconsin

Building Inspectors Association. Mr. Price was elected CEO of the newly formed chapter and Patrick Parsley from Minnesota is the CFO (executive treasurer).

Early in 2004, the ICC designated 12 regions to encourage the formation of regional chapters. There are significant benefits for state and local chapters to participate at the region level, in my opinion. Regional chapters can create stronger, more unified networks of building safety professionals, improve educational efficiencies, and provide greater strength when addressing code adoption and code development issues.

One activity the fledgling Upper Great Plains Region Chapter can look forward to is the first annual Association of Minnesota Building Officials Educational Institute, being held in Brooklyn Park, Minnesota, February 6-10, 2006, providing eight different education tracks, including a Management/Leadership Academy presented by the University of Minnesota-Humphrey Institute. For more information and registration you can contact AMBO, www.ambo.us, or go to www.iccsafe.org/training/AMBO.

If you have questions, you may contact me at jsmith@commerce.state.wi.us, 608-266-0251.

An update of Wisconsin's Commercial Buildings Code, which is based on the ICC codes, is moving forward to a planned 2007 effective date - See activities of the various commercial buildings-related code advisory councils, <http://commerce.wi.gov/SB/SB-CodeCouncils.html>.
